At Patient Advocate Foundation (PAF), we know that a Hepatitis C diagnosis can be overwhelming. It can complicate daily life and cause extreme stress for patients and families. Challenges like these can distract from what's most important—treatment and recovery.

Our mission is to help patients access care and treatment recommended by their physician. PAF remains committed to offering financial, access to care and social needs navigation.

The Hepatitis C CareLine offers free, one-on-one support to patients and families to help them solve real-life problems related to their diagnosis. Whether you need help finding resources for financial aid, understanding coverage options, resolving issues with the insurance company, or applying for disability, we are here to support you.

All services are confidential and free of charge.

This program is operated by Patient Advocate Foundation.
